Instructions and Purpose

Why is this important?

This is not a CMC survey exclusively. Your participation in this survey is a major factor in designating resources to support career related goals of Freeman students. Additionally, the accreditation status of the Freeman School of Business and other important ranking methods are based on the self-reporting of students related to their career goals and their career path while enrolled here.

This is not a contest or competition between classmates. We do not share the data nor do we disclose the individual statistics with anyone.

MBA Students – Your completion of this status form is part of the Perspectives Class course grade. Your grade is NOT based on what you report. If you are “Not Seeking” or “Still Seeking” for any reason, then report your current status without fear of penalty and a negative grade for the course. We need your honest, current search status for data collection for ranking purposes.
